

The Daily Caucasian.

THEY WILL ALL GO HOME.

The Closing Hours and Incidents Connected Therewith--
All Well.

THE PAGES OF THE SENATE

Present Lieut.-Governor Doughton With a Nice Token--Evidence of Esteem--A Round-But the Speech of Disgraced Democrats is Still in Evidence.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10--LAST DAY.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock a. m. by Lieut.-Governor R. A. Doughton.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Lawrence of the House of Representatives.

The expiring hours of the General Assembly were spent by the presiding officers of the two branches signing acts ready for publication.

A matter of much importance, and which, it is believed, will be of great importance to the State, was the failure to elect a speaker of the House of Representatives.

The tellers' report on vote for state officers was that in the House of Representatives, Sanford received 25 votes, making 78; necessary for an election.

In the Senate he received 25 votes and 1 vote was cast against him. This made 74 votes only cast for and against the tellers.

It is necessary, to elect any one by the General Assembly, by a joint majority of the two houses to-wit: 87 votes.

In the vote on penitentiary directors there were 29 votes cast in the Senate and in the House 20 votes, making 49; necessary for an election.

It was declared upon the reports of the tellers that there was no election.

Rice, (Republican), moved that the Senate declare Sanford elected anyway.

The President stated that the tellers' report stated otherwise, and that the journal would show to the contrary.

Rice replied, "that makes no difference," and finding that there was no support for his motion, he abandoned the matter.

PROTESTS.

Parsons sent up and asked to have spread upon the journal his protest against the ratification of an act for the relief of ex-Sheriff J. G. Kenan, of Duplin county. It was so ordered.

Parsons entered his protest against the passage of the act for the relief of ex-Sheriff J. G. Kenan, of Duplin county. It was so ordered.

A resolution to pay extra money to five assistant enrolling clerks was voted down.

A FEW MINOR BILLS.

The Senators lounged about the lobby and in the aisles and in the different subjects, only to be interrupted by an occasional rap of the gavel, calling attention to a message from the House of Representatives transmitting a stray bill, which had just passed, and requesting concurrence, which was immediately disposed of.

A resolution to pay extra money to five assistant enrolling clerks was voted down.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.

Adams requested the President to vacate the chair for a few moments and call some Senator to preside.

The Lieutenant Governor called the Hon. Senator from Cumberland to the chair, when

Lieutenant-Governor Doughton and Senators

A few days ago the members of this Senate presented to you, as our presiding officer, a testimonial of high appreciation of the manner in which you have presided over the deliberations of this body in a dignified and high-spirited manner.

Now sir, I am delegated the pleasant duty to tender you another testimonial as a mark of the esteem, respect and love of the little pages of this body. For them, it is my delight to present to you this handsome gold watch chain, and for them, to say that it is their earnest wishes that the circle of your life, your usefulness and happiness may always grow larger, and that you may continue to be a great educator to them by their profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

The Lieutenant Governor was deeply touched, and in reply said:

Surely, I am among my friends, both large and small. I feel most sensibly this transaction. It fills my whole being with joy. From my heart, I thank you for the gift, and for the profound respect, their best wishes, their esteem, affection and love.

Mewborne said that a day or two ago, Senator Farthing, who had been one of the hardest workers of the body, had drawn all his pay, and this, together with some valuable papers which were in his pocket book had been lost; that many Senators had pitied him for his loss, for which he wished to return his lasting thanks.

Starbuck sent up the following:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be, and they are hereby tendered to the President of the Senate for the distinguished ability and impartial and courteous bearing which he has manifested during the deliberations of the Senate, and that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the journal.

The resolution was put upon its passage, Senator Starbuck putting the question, "Aye," it was unanimously adopted.

The President ordered the roll call, that the names of those Senators who were present at the close of the session might be spread upon the journal, and following responded to their names:

Adams, Bellamy, Black, Carver, Doughton, Grant, Green, Hendrick, Herbert, Hoover, Hurley, Lindsay, McAskey, Moore, Parsons, Rice, Sharp, Starbuck, Wall, Westmoreland and White of Albemarle.

A PROTEST.

Senator Carver entered his solemn protest against the list of magistrates appointed by this General Assembly for Cumberland county, because changes had been made by some one unknown to him in the names agreed upon and submitted by himself and the representatives.

The protest was ordered spread upon the journal.

Mewborne, during a full, addressed the chair and said:

Mr. President:

The hour has well nigh come when we shall separate and go to our homes. All of us are anxious to reach those homes and mingle with those we love. I, myself, am exceedingly anxious to be where I can smell the apple blossom and see the blue birds and join my family; but I have determined to stay and do all that fell to my lot to perform.

To-night I have been called to perform a pleasant duty. Our Secretary is a man I have long known as a good citizen and a splendid business man who, wherever you may put him, will always do his whole duty as he perceives it.

Now, in behalf of the clerks and employees of this Senate, I present Mr. H. E. King this watch, and asked that it be accepted with the high appreciation of his worth and efficiency, and the love, affection and esteem of his associate clerks.

Mr. King accepted the watch in a pleasant little speech, relating the ups and downs of a Senate clerk's duties, and closed with his heartfelt thanks to the donors.

A resolution was received from the House of Representatives that the General Assembly of North Carolina would adjourn without day at the hour of 10:30 o'clock p. m.

The Senate concurred in the resolution and when the hands of the clock indicated 10:30 p. m., the gavel of the President rapped and he said: Senators, under the joint resolution of the two bodies, this General Assembly stands adjourned without day.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

Among the many pleasant circumstances attending the close of the General Assembly was the presentation of an elegant gold headed cane to Principal Doorkeeper by his assistants and employees in his department.

The enrolling clerk of the Senate was also recipient of a present in the shape of a gold headed cane as a memento of kind feeling and high esteem of his assistants and other friends.

HOUSE.

House met at 9:30; prayer by Rev. Dr. Branson.

The reading of the journal was commenced. Mr. Ray moved to suspend the reading and called for the ayes and noes on his motion.

The chair said there was not a sufficient number up. Mr. Ray, quoted from the News and Observer in regard to the last vote at the night session, and asked that the journal of last night so far as it related to the last votes in the House be read. He intimated that there was something wrong about the clerk's desk.

The chair stated that the clerk did not have time to write up his journal in full last night, and that he would give him a little time. There being a pause of some length, Mr. Ray made an intimation that there was something wrong going on between the chair and the clerk.

SHARP LANGUAGE BETWEEN SPEAKER WALSBERG AND MR. RAY.

The Speaker requested Mr. Ewart to take the chair. He then came down on the floor and defended himself against the insinuations of himself against the insinuations of the gentleman from Macon. He said the gentleman had been made by the unworthiness of any member of the House. The gentleman from Macon knows, and every member of this House knows that I was doing all I could to expedite the business of this body, and that I have been doing my duty with fairness to all parties. The gentleman makes insinuations here that he dare not make outside of this House. He insinuates, and a paper in this town charges that I am using my position to further legislation in which my party is interested, by taking undue advantages and denying to members their privileges on this floor. The gentleman all know the charge or the insinuation is untrue and I denounce it as untrue.

Mr. Ray asked the gentleman from Henderson to retain the chair that he (Ray) might be on terms of equality with the gentleman from Davidson. As far as my acting in a way toward the gentleman, as indecent and unbecoming a gentleman, I denounce the charge as false, and the man who makes it is an absolutely unqualified falsifier. If an attack has been made upon me, because I said there was something wrong going on around the chair, I will say that I did not intend to reflect on the chair, and I ask him to divest himself of his authority as Speaker and then make the hard, unmanly thrust that I have not acted with the conduct of a decent man. I deny making any charge upon the gentleman's integrity when I said there was something wrong going on around the speaker's chair.

The Speaker accepted the disclaimer of the gentleman from Macon, and Mr. Ray retreated what he had said that was offensive, and the Speaker returned to his desk and the business of the house went on.

The vote to suspend the reading was 59 to 3. The journal was approved.

Senate resolution in favor of W. W. Davies, assistant enrolling clerk, whose name by oversight was not put on the roll of clerks, passed second and third readings.

Resolution to expunge from the journal of 1888 the record in regard to the expulsion of Hon. J. Ash Turner, was called up and tabled.

Mr. Peebles introduced a bill for the relief of Jno. A. Snow by giving him a second-class pension. The bill he stated was a substitute for a bill between the House and the Senate. The bill passed its second and third readings.

Resolution to pay J. W. Brown, enrolling clerk, $100 for extra work, was introduced by Mr. Robinson. Pullins moved to amend by adding the name of E. P. Hauser. Young, by adding $5 each for the laborers. Amendments and bill were all tabled.

Senate bill, to repeal sections 6, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12, laws of 1893, in regard to the town of Monroe, was tabled. Bill to create a new township in Forsythe, to establish stock law fence between Chatham and Albemarle, amendment of Senate concurred in; to establish line between Albemarle and Chatham called up from the table and passed second and third reading. The Senate amendments to the divorce bill were concurred in.

ELECTION OF STATE LIBRARIAN.

Mr. Ewart placed in nomination Mr. E. D. Stanford, of Yadkin county, the first assistant clerk of the House. Messrs. McCall and Hunter acted as tellers on the part of the House, and the roll call developed 48 votes for Stanford.

Mr. Peebles raised the point of order that there was no quorum developed by the last roll call. We could only adjourn for want of a quorum, or have the House polled to see if a quorum is present. He moved to adjourn till 2 o'clock. The chair called that the roll call was not a roll call for the purpose of an election. This provoked several inquiries and questions about a quorum, which were brought to an end by a message from the Senate, and the Speaker proceeded to sign the enrolled bills which were brought in by the messenger.

NEW OFFICERS VOTED FOR.

Mr. Hileman from the committee to nominate directors for the penitentiary made the following nominations:

DIRECTORS OF THE PENITENTIARY.

1st district, T. E. McAskey; 2nd, J. B. T. Hoover; 3rd, Mayer Hahn; 4th, J. E. Bryan; 5th, J. A. Cheek; 6th, H. C. Dockery; 7th, H. B. Parks; 8th, Ed. P. Wakefield; 9th, R. L. Herbert. Four Republicans and five Populists.

The roll was called and 50 votes were cast in the House for, and 2 against the nominees, a quorum not voting.

SHELL FISH COMMISSION FRAUDS.

The joint special committee, appointed to investigate the charges of fraud in the shell fish commission and matters pertaining thereto, reported through Mr. Ewart that they had not found time to enter into a full investigation, and recommended the appointment of a sub-committee to act during the recess of the General Assembly, and report to the State treasurer whatever they may find due to the State.

CANNING MR. LUSK.

Mr. Winborne, Democrat, rose to a question of privilege.

He had been deputed by the judiciary committee, of which Mr. Lusk was chairman, to present to him a gold headed cane as a token of the regard in which Mr. Lusk was held by that committee for his faithfulness, punctuality, fairness as a presiding officer and his arduous duties which he had so faithfully performed. Mr. Winborne paid a high compliment to Mr. Lusk, and stated that as Mr. Lusk was sick and confined to his room at the hotel, he would present the cane to Mr. French for him.

Mr. French made a graceful response as he accepted the cane in Mr. Lusk's behalf.

TRIED TO PUT THEM ON RECORD.

Mr. Peebles called up the resolution introduced by him in the early part of the session, requesting our Senators and Representatives in Congress to use their influence to secure the passage of a bill for the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and for the repeal of the act on State banks of issue. Mr. Hileman saw the point, and moved to substitute the money plank of the Populist platform, which he sent forward.

Mr. French said that while the Populists and Republicans were co-operating together on State issues, there were differences among them on matters of national politics. He did not know himself where he would stand on national questions two years hence. He moved to indefinitely postpone both the resolution and the substitute. The motion was carried.

The bill to print captions of all the laws passed by this legislature was then taken up and passed its several readings.

(Continued on fourth page.)

THE ITALIAN MASSACRE.

International Complications Probable--Protest of the Italian Legation.

MASKED MEN AT A JAIL.

Several Shots Fired at Prisoners--Guards Fled Guns in Their Faces--Two Men Killed--One Dying in Great Agony--Three Dead Bodies Found.

WALSBERG, Colo., March 13--The United States army have an international complication on its hands as the result of the violence here last night, in which five Italians, who are believed to be unarmatized, were killed. After the attack on the wagon party only last evening, described in the Associated Press despatches last night, all was comparatively quiet until about midnight. About seven or eight men wearing masks, knocked at the door of the jail where Lorenzo Danino, who was charged by the other Italians with having struck the blows that killed Hixson on Sunday, and the Italian wounded in the wagon attack were confined. In answer to a question the masked men went to the cell where the two Italians were confined and fired eight or ten shots. Each prisoner received four or five bullets. One died instantly, but the other lived a short time in great agony. No trace has yet been found of the three Italians who were taken from the wagon, though they were killed, beyond a doubt. The list of dead and missing is: Joseph Weloby, driver of the wagon; Lorenzo Danino; Pete Jacoby; Antonio Gontato; Stanile Vittano; Francesco Raccetta.

The other five suspects had been released from custody before the mob arose. Some fears were entertained at Rouse last night that the Italians, who outnumbered the Americans and other nationalities, might rise up and attack their neighbors in revenge. Nothing of the sort happened, however, nor is it much anticipated that the mob will be so bold as to attack the Italians who were exterminated.

Later--The bodies of the three missing Italians have been found at some distance from town. It is therefore certain that the five men held for the murder of Hixson have all been assassinated.

WASHINGTON, March 13--Marquis Imperio, first secretary of the Italian legation, called at the State Department this morning, and directed the attention of the officials to the news from Walsberg, Colo., of the assassination of four Italians. He asked that the good offices of the United States be used immediately to prevent the killing of any others of his countrymen.

Acting Secretary of State Uhl, at the instance of the Italian legation in this city, has telegraphed the Governor of Colorado for an explanation of the killing of the Italians at Walsberg.

NEGROES CAN'T WORK.

And if They Steal They Will be Sent to the Penitentiary--Oh Temporal Oh Moors!

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 13--The levee, the scene of yesterday's rioting, presents a peaceful aspect today. Where yesterday crowds of excited workmen armed with all kinds of weapons patrolled the river front, today there is to be seen but squads of policemen discussing the affair of yesterday and its probable outcome. The police did not wait until actual shooting began before they took action as was the case yesterday morning. Their experience yesterday was one never to be forgotten. Word was sent to all police commanders last night to have their force on the front at daylight this morning. Consequently the police were on hand in large numbers to prevent a repetition of yesterday's affair. There was a heavy fog this morning hanging over the river, and the police were under the impression that the rioters would again take advantage of this fact and commit deeds of violence. But this belief did not pay out for the simple reason that not a negro put in an appearance on the levee. Every colored man, whose business calls him to the river front took a day off and very sensibly kept at home. The various agents who have up to yesterday been working negro servants to hold their men to remain at home until they were sent for. At a meeting, the agents held last night, they decided, in view of the unsettled state of affairs, it would be bad policy to attempt to work their colored labor.

Gov. Foster received a number of ship agents and reiterated his assertion that he would maintain peace and quiet at all hazards. He, however, advised the agents not to attempt to work their colored laborers, believing that the negroes kept off the scene for 24 hours, the fighting spirit of the rioters would die of inanimation. The Governor also received information that the military were many of them at their armories and could be moved in a moment's notice. Gov. Foster said that he did not anticipate any more trouble.

WASHINGTON, March 13--Weather indications for North Carolina: Showers, west winds, and decidedly colder Thursday night.

THE ECLIPSE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

What Hunting Grover saw while shooting ducks in the Old North State.

WHISKEY IS A WINNER.

The Power of the Big Trust Policy and Prevents Investigation.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 13--In the State Senate today Senator Solomon's special order, The resolution requiring that the whiskey trust be conducted contrary to the laws of the State, and that it was so decided by the State, that attention to the Senate be called to the fact that the whiskey trust, which is now being conducted by the State, is being conducted in a manner that is contrary to the laws of the State.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 13--Gen. J. S. Fullerton and Gen. A. P. Stewart, of the national commission of Chickamauga Park, addressed an enthusiastic meeting of citizens at the chamber of commerce this morning, about the necessary preparations for the dedication of the park.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 13--Gen. Fullerton stated that not less than one hundred thousand visitors would be here. President Cleveland is coming unless some extraordinary incident keeps him in Washington. Vice-President Stevenson and all the members of the cabinet are coming, as well as officials of the army and navy. The governors of nearly all the States are coming, and he has notified the commissioners that they are coming. The weather at the season of the dedication is to occur, has been free from rain, nearly always been free from rain.

CHATTANOOGA will begin at once to make preparations on a most extensive scale, and will take care of everything. The railroads will make a one cent a mile rate.

THE DREAD HYDROPHOBIA.

Has Three Victims in Two Little Months and a Doctor--Who Were Killed by a Mad Dog.

PHILADELPHIA, March 13--Three boys suffering from hydrophobia, one of whom was tied to a car seat, were passengers on the Pennsylvania railroad's Florida express, which passed through this city at noon on their way to the Eastern Institute in New York. The unfortunate and Willie Davis, aged 9 years, his brother, John Davis, aged 5 years, and Willie Anderson, aged 6 years, all three of whom reside in McCleary, Baker county, Pa., and were bitten by a mad dog on March 4. The boys were in charge of Dr. Taylor, a prominent physician from Jacksonville, who told a reporter that the cases were the worst he had ever met with in his practice. The disease has made more progress in the case of Johnnie Davis than any of the others, and he has every symptom of